

Multicultural Council of Tasmania Governance Framework

This framework refers to the means by which we are directed, controlled and held to account including the authority, accountability, stewardship, leadership, direction and control exercised in the organisation. We aim to abide by principals of good governance in accordance with the Governance Institute of Australia, the Australian Institute of Company Directors, and the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission.

